A. TERMS, LANGUAGE AND SYMBOLS OF HATE

Annotated Glossary of Terms

Prepared by Daniel Levitas<sup>76</sup>

Anti-Semitism

Hatred, bigotry or prejudice directed against the Jewish people or the Jewish faith.

Aryan Nations

A white supremacist and neo-Nazi organization founded in the mid-1970s by Richard Butler, an Identity preacher and former California Klansman. The full name of the group is the Church of Jesus Christ Christian, Aryan Nations. In 1979, Butler convened the first "Aryan Nations World Congress" on his twenty-acre encampment in Northern Idaho near Hayden Lake.

British Israelism

See Christian Identity below.

Christian Common Law

A group of bogus and racially based legal theories most often promoted by the rural radical right and others associated with groups such as the Posse Comitatus and the Christian Identity movement. According to Christian Common Law, white, Anglo-Saxon Christians are governed by laws different than those that apply to non-whites and non-Christians. For example, under Christian Common Law, two groups of United States citizens exist:

- a) Those, who were "illegally" granted citizenship by virtue of the 13th and 14th Amendments to the Constitution, which abolished slavery and guaranteed equal protection under the law;
- b) Those white, Anglo-Saxon citizens, whose racial and religious identity automatically confers citizenship rights.

Christian Identity

A religious theology, which originated in England in the late 18th century. The founder of Identity was Richard Brothers, a delusional religious fanatic who was eventually committed to an insane asylum. Identity teaches that the "Anglo-Saxon-Celtic" people are the true descendants of the lost tribes of Israel and that Jews are Satanic because they are the product of the sexual union of Eve and the devil. Blacks and other racial and ethnic minorities are regarded as "pre-Adamic" mistakes by God before the creation of the perfect white race. People of color are referred to as "mud people," because they are believed to be manufactured from the earth, as opposed to whites, who are supposedly formed from divine materials. Christian Identity is also sometimes called Kingdom Identity, British Israelism or Anglo-Israelism. In addition to being racist and anti-Semitic, Identity followers are critical of mainline Protestant denominations as well as fundamentalist and evangelical Christianity.

<sup>76</sup> Daniel Levitas is a writer, researcher and expert on the subject of white supremacist and neo-Nazi hate [extremist] groups. He is a contributing author to Anti-Semitism in America Today (Birch Lane Press, 1995), Groliers Multimedia Encyclopedia and other publications. He is currently working on a book to be published by St. Martin's Press in 2000 on the history of the militia movement, the Posse Comitatus and the American paramilitary right.

Christian Patriot Movement

See also, Constitutional Fundamentalism, Posse Comitatus and the Rural Radical Right. A predominantly rural and right-wing social movement that emerged in the late 1970s and early 1980s as a result of the synthesis of Christian Identity theology and the anti-tax, anti-government beliefs of the posse comitatus. While all members of the posse comitatus would be considered part of the Christian patriot movement, not all Christian patriots are members of the posse comitatus.

Constitutional Fundamentalism

The belief that the United States Constitution is solely derived from a divinely inspired Bible. Constitutional fundamentalists believe that most laws passed by Congress and state legislatures are unconstitutional. Constitutional fundamentalists also share the racist and racially based legal ideas of Christian Common Law such as the belief that the 13th and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution should be abolished.

Far Right

Includes those right-wing groups that publicly espouse white supremacy and anti-Semitism such as the Ku Klux Klan, Aryan Nations, Skinheads, etc. The Far Right is distinguished from the ultra-conservative movement and other, more mainstream conservatives, by several factors:

- Its revolutionary view of the status quo. This is best exemplified by the belief of many on the Far Right that the government of the United States should be overthrown by armed insurrection because it is secretly controlled by an international Jewish conspiracy.
- Its belief in biological determinism as the underlying principle for all public policy. For example, while some conservatives might favor construction of more prisons and stiffer jail terms to address the problem of crime, those on the Far Right advocate executing all black and non-white criminals because they are thought to be genetically defective. Indeed, far rightists seek to remake society by eliminating - both literally and figuratively - all racial and ethnic minorities as well as lesbians and gay men.
- The deliberate and total exclusion of racial or ethnic minorities - as well as Jews - from membership. Unlike conservative organizations that have Jews and blacks as members and leaders, the Ku Klux Klan and other far right groups do not. White supremacists and neo-Nazis want to go beyond asserting Western, cultural, 'traditional' family values. They want to exterminate their opponents. For example, with regard to anti-Semitism, certain people may believe anti-Semitic stereotypes, ascribe certain "radical" characteristics to Jews, or act negatively against people who are Jewish but their bigotry does not necessarily extend to either a desire or a plan to attempt a second Final Solution. This dividing line, between the institutionalized racism, ethnocentrism and homophobia of some ultraconservatives, and the biologically determined annihilationism of the Far Right, is a key factor that distinguished the Far Right from other sectors of ultraconservatives.

Historical Revisionism

More appropriately termed Holocaust Denial, the term refers to those pseudo scholars, right-wing activists, anti-Semites, academics and others who claim that the Holocaust of World War Two never occurred. Among other things, historical revisionists: deny that Hitler and the Nazis had an explicit plan to exterminate European Jewry (the "final solution"); claim that most Jewish deaths in concentration camps were due to typhus and other diseases; deny the existence of gas chambers; and claim that those Jews who perished in the Holocaust were "routine" casualties of war.

Homophobia

Literally, "fear of homosexuals/homosexuality." The term also implies hatred, bigotry or prejudice toward lesbians and gay men.

Klan, Klansman, and KKK

See Ku Klux Klan.

Ku Klux Klan

The term refers specifically to those organizations descended from the original KKK, which was founded in December 1865 by a group of former Confederate soldiers in Pulaski, Tennessee. The name is taken partially from the Greek word "kuklos," meaning circle. From 1865 until 1872, the Klan raised a guerrilla army throughout the South to intimidate newly freed slaves, defeat African American suffrage and sabotage reconstruction. There is no single, Ku Klux Klan, but, rather, membership is divided among various factions such as the Christian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, the, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and so forth. Where it is known, the name of the specific faction should always be used. Often misspelled as "Klu Klux Klan."

National Socialist

See Nazi.

Nazi

Refers to the organization and ideology of the National Socialist German Workers Party, which was founded and led by Adolph Hitler from 1923 - 1946. Generally speaking the term should be capitalized.

Neo-Nazi

Refers to those individuals and/or groups whose ideology and beliefs directly resemble or attempt to resemble the original Nazi Party or one of its factions. Always use lower case for neo and capitalize Nazi. Do not use interchangeably with Nazi.

Paleo-Conservative(s)

By their own definition, paleo-conservatives are "cultural traditionalists who reject the egalitarian movements that have wielded their way through America." Paleo-conservatives are the same as ultra-conservatives and oppose "cultural modernists who endorse the forced integration and redistributism of civil rights." Paleo (and ultra) conservatives are the ideological descendants of those extreme conservatives and right-wing isolationists that opposed the United States' entry into the Second World War. These conservatives espouse "America First" nationalism through such institutions as the Rockford Institute and the Ludwig Von Mises Society; their politics are closely associated with those of political commentator and presidential aspirant Pat Buchanan.

Posse Comitatus

See also, Rural Radical Right, Constitutional Fundamentalism, Christian Common Law and Christian Patriot Movement. A right-wing anti-tax, anti-government, anti-Semitic and racist organization founded by Lieutenant Colonel William Potter Gale (U.S. Army, retired) in California in 1971. Though Gale developed the original concept for the Posse, credit is often incorrectly given to Henry L. Beach, of Portland, Oregon. Beach was a retired mechanic who repaired and sold dry cleaning equipment who popularized the Posse in the mid-late 1970s. "Posse Comitatus" is Latin for "power of the county" and refers to the belief that the county sheriff is the highest law enforcement officer in America. The Posse has been most popular in rural and agricultural areas, particularly the Midwest, Great Plains and Pacific Northwest, although Posse groups are active throughout the United States. Among other things, Posse members believe that:

- America is not a democracy and the nation was originally established as a "White Christian Republic";
- The Constitution is solely derived from a divinely inspired Bible and most laws passed by Congress and state legislatures are unconstitutional;
- The income tax and the federal reserve banking system are products of a so-called "International Jewish Conspiracy;"
- Christian Common Law supersedes all other laws.

Reconstructionism

Also referred to as Kingdom Theology or Dominion Theology. Advocates of Reconstructionism such as R.J. Rushdoony, call for the establishment of God's "Kingdom" on earth by directing their followers to take over and "Christianize" every social and political institution. As such, they advocate the application of Biblical punishments such as stoning for certain crimes such as adultery.

Rural Radical Right

Refers to those right-wing groups such as the posse comitatus and others that grew to prominence during the farm crisis of the 1980s when they attempted to recruit farmers and other rural residents. Broadly defined, the Rural Radical Right includes the posse comitatus, the Christian patriot movement, and other rural-based constitutional fundamentalists and believers in Christian common law.

Skinheads

Skinheads originated in Great Britain and trace their roots to various youth subcultures, including the punk rock music scene. Although the earliest Skinheads were not racist, by the early 1970s many were involved in neo-fascist organizations like the British National Party. Although both non-racist and racist Skinheads still exist, the skinhead movement is known primarily for its affinity for neo-Nazism and violence. Skinheads first appeared in the United States in the early 1980s and by 1986, the Atlanta-based Center for Democratic Renewal (formerly the National Anti-Klan Network) counted 300 racist Skinheads in the United States. By 1991, the number had increased tenfold to 3,600 in more than thirty-five cities.

White Separatist

See also, White Supremacist. A euphemism for white supremacy most often used by Klan members and other white supremacists to disguise their bigotry.

White Supremacist

See also, Far Right, Neo-Nazi and White Separatist. An adjective describing those individuals or groups such as the Ku Klux Klan that believe in the inherent biological, genetic and/or intellectual superiority of whites. White Supremacists advocate explicitly race-based measures to impose white dominance over non-whites and others considered to be racially inferior. All White Supremacists are racist but not all racists are White Supremacists. Often misspelled "white supremacist."

Lexicon of Hate<sup>77</sup>

88

Neo-Nazi shorthand for the eighth letter of the alphabet, twice - HH. Short for Heil Hitler.

14 Words

Phrase from Order member David Lane, "We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children."

Aryan

A term derived from mythology and used within the white supremacist movement to refer to people and cultures of northern Europe.

Biological Determinism

The idea that "race" is a biological category subject to scientific measurement and evaluation and that biological factors determine social, economic, and cultural circumstances.

Christian Patriot

A term of self-reference for the largest portion of the contemporary white supremacist movement in the United States. The term is used interchangeably with Patriot, Constitutionalist, Freeman, and Sovereign Citizen. Christian Patriots believe in a variety of often anti-Semitic conspiracy theories; a literal, albeit selective interpretation of the Bible and the Constitution; and racist notions of citizenship.

Christian Israel

See Christian Identity.

Constitutionalist

See Christian Patriot.

Covenant Identity

See Christian Identity.

Eschatology

The "science" or set of beliefs having to do with the "end times," in Christian theology.

Freeman

See Christian Patriot.
